GATEWAY TO GRATITUDE

with Mary Rose Feldman, czt26

"Gratitude is the gateway to a positive life."
-A.D. Posey

Welcome to the Gratitude Gate! This is the place where we will embrace our tangling journey as we honor the positive moments of our life. After we complete our gate, we will use 3D hinges to attach it to an Opus tile so that it can physically open and close. But the magic of this class is found in the next step. I wonder what will be found behind your Gratitude Gate? Join us for this wonderfully inspiring class to find out!
